

Memorandum of Understanding

Between the

University of Cyprus

And the University of Jordan

The purpose of this MoU is to promote cooperation in the fields of teaching and research between the University of Cyprus and the University of Jordan.

Both institutions will make every reasonable effort to encourage direct contact and research cooperation between their respective faculty members. Both institutions agree on the following general forms of cooperation:

- (i) Joint research activities
- (ii) Exchange of academic materials and academic publications and information
- (iii) Exchange of faculty members for research, lectures and discussions
- (iv) Exchange of graduate and undergraduate students for study and research
- (v) Co-organization and participation in lectures, seminars and conferences
- (vi) Cooperation in administrative issues

The themes of joint activities, the conditions for utilizing the results achieved and the arrangements of specific visits, exchanges and other forms of cooperation will appear as separate addendums to the present MoU, and will be negotiated for each specific case by the interested parties.

It is understood that all financial arrangements between the two institutions would be negotiated individually for each addendum to this MoU.

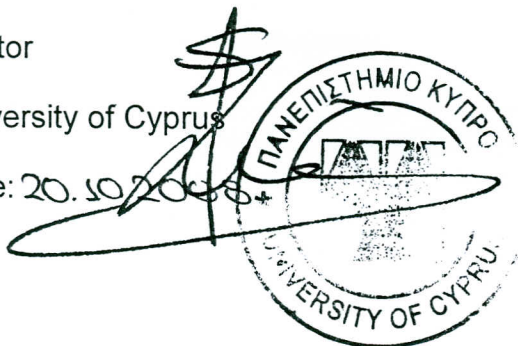

It is also understood that the implementation of this MoU will commence upon its signing by both parties, and that it will be valid for five years, subject to revision or modification by mutual consent. The possibility and terms of renewal of their MoU will be discussed by the representatives of both universities within six months prior to its termination.
