

Abeer B. Dababneh
Email: dababneh-abeer@ hotmail.com

Academic Rank: Assistant Professor
Year Rank Obtained: January 2006
Specialization: Gender Studies
Research Interests: Women's Legal and Political Rights, Women and Islam in Middle East, and Social Movements' Theories.
Bachelor: Law, University of Jordan, Jordan 1997
Master: Law, University of Jordan, Jordan 2001
Ph.D: Gender Studies, University of Leicester, UK 2006

Brief Bio: Upon graduation with a Ph.D in Gender Studies from the University of Leicester in England, Abeer Dababneh began teaching a number of undergraduate and graduate courses in both the Women's Studies Center and the Faculty of Law at the University of Jordan. The courses she teaches mainly deal with issues like women and Law, women's political participation, democracy and human rights. Regarding research, Abeer has shared in preparing a regional report with the IFC and CAWTAR that deals with Women Entrepreneurs in the Arab World and currently she is working on new topics related to women and law. Abeer is a member in the Legal Committee at the Jordanian National Commission for Women (JNCW), which is one of the first commissions established in the Arab world to promote women's issues, headed by HRH Princess Basma Bint Talal. She has participated in a number of conferences and workshops pertaining to Arab Women empowerment. Now, she is the Head of the Academic Department in the Women's Studies Center at the University. Abeer Dababneh believes that if there is a will there is a way.